The apartments are finished to the highest standards throughout and effortlessly merge bespoke design with characterful features including original Crittal windows and higher than average ceilings. Each apartment is arranged slightly differently giving each an identity of its own. All come with fully fitted kitchens, stainless steel worktops and fully integrated appliances whilst bathrooms are fully tiled with contemporary fittings. Flagstone tiles throughout continue the modern feel and thanks to the south aspect, all apartments are bathed in natural light.

Chance Street sits just off popular Redchurch Street which boasts numerous cafes and restaurants including Albion, Burro e Salvia and Andina as well as renowned boutiques like APC, Sunspel, Modern Society and Timothy Everest. Shoreditch High Street station is moments away whilst it is a ten-minute walk to both Old Street and Shoreditch High Street stations for connections across the city.
