In detail

Pedder are delighted to announce a beautiful split level, two-bedroom property now available to let in Helix Gardens in Brixton.

This large home offers great living accommodation, separated over two floors. On the first floor there is a double bedroom, a modern and stylish shower room, bright living room and the well-appointed kitchen with dishwasher.

On the top floor is the master double bedroom with ensuite bathroom and a further single room or study. To the front of the property there is a large shared garden.

Within easy reach of both buzzing Brixton with its tube and train station and Herne Hill with its selection of restaurants, shops and bars and Brockwell Park Lido.

This property will not remain on the market long and we invite an appointment to view at your earliest opportunity.
