Set in the heart of the Stour Valley, an area of outstanding natural beauty, Sudbury is an ancient market town dating back to Saxon times. Sudbury has been used for television locations, most significantly for BBC's Lovejoy, and is surrounded by the attractive countryside so often painted by Constable and Gainsborough and by quintessentially English villages. The market place is the centre of the town with many fine buildings, and the town offers plenty of restaurants, cafes and bars as well as a mix of shops. The Sudbury water meadows are beautiful and are crossed by many footpaths which are excellent for walking. Friars Meadow, closest to the town, is an ideal place for a picnic and next to the Kingfisher Leisure Centre, The Valley Trail starts and this runs along a disused railway as far as Long Melford. The Trail forms part of the National Cycle Network Route 13 and the St Edmunds Way.
