

Maldon Road, Goldhanger

NOW SOLD – SIMILAR REQUIRED

We are delighted to market this most attractive THREE bedroom semi-detached house proudly located within the popular village of Goldhanger, backing onto open countryside. Internally the property has been subject to much improvement with no expense spared. The ground floor commences with an entrance porch leading through to a charming living room with feature fireplace. The living room is open plan to a high quality and ultra-modern kitchen with ample units and worktop space. To complete the ground floor, there is a breakfast area, luxury shower room/WC and access to the garage which has been partitioned off to provide a handy utility area. Upstairs boasts excellent sized bedrooms. All three act as doubles. There is also an impressive bathroom with shower over bath.
