In detail

A characterful and bright 851 sq ft first floor, property located on a pretty and residential road in Sydenham.

This attractive Edwardian building benefits from a beautiful front door with stained glass panels and wide bay windows. Being first floor this particular property benefits from a good amount of natural light throughout.

Comprising a reception to the front, large kitchen / dining room, two double bedrooms and a study. Due to the property being end of terrace, the garden is 39ft x 33ft, larger than average and also benefits from rear access for bicycles and/or gardening materials.

Niederwald Road is a small road set between De Frene Road and Adamsrill Road, enviably close to Mayow Park, a beautiful open space with a number of recreational facilities. Sydenham and Forest Hill rail are also within close proximity.
