In Detail

Charming two-bedroom maisonette with direct access to a private garden on one of West Norwood’s most desirable roads.

Lovingly maintained by the landlord, this homely and versatile property is an ideal property for professional couples with space to entertain and work from home. A character-rich and large reception room with separate fully fitted kitchen, a large double bedroom and small double as well as a modern bathroom. The private landscaped garden backs onto the famous West Norwood cemetery.

Enviably located between West Dulwich and Norwood Road for its shops, bars restaurants and amenities (including the new Picture House cinema and library). Excellent transport links into The City and West End from West Norwood station (0.4 miles).
