Rotherhithe Street, Rotherhithe

Occupying a peaceful spot on the riverside Rotherhithe Street, this 1920s built end of terrace home offers a rare slice of period charm set against the backdrop of post-dock Rotherhithe. The property enjoys three double bedrooms upstairs, a contemporary, fully tiled bathroom, naturally bright kitchen/diner at the rear and a cosy front living room with chimney-breast, fireplace surround and fitted carpet. The conservatory offers additional space for a family sized dining table and the orientation floods the space with light all day. The garden to the rear is south facing and laid to flagstone and artificial grass giving all the enjoyment of the outside space without the maintenance worries.

- Three Double Bedrooms
