McIntosh House, Surrey Quays

Enjoying a sunny south facing roof terrace, this two bedroomed duplex apartment enjoys a peaceful setting in Millender Walk overlooking the park below. Occupying the second and third floors, the property enjoys a naturally bright ambiance with windows on both sides accentuating the generous proportions throughout. The property dates from 1979 and enjoys the spacious rooms you would expect from the age with two double bedrooms and 17'9 (5.41m) long reception room, separate kitchen and ample storage. McIntosh House sits a 7 minute park-side stroll from Surrey Quays station, while South Bermondsey and Canada Water stations are both within a 15 minute stroll.
