Uncompromising in their contemporary design and décor, these modern one double bedroom bed apartments offer enjoyable living spaces and provide residents with floor to ceiling views, some spanning the entire London city skyline.

Situated directly opposite Colliers Wood underground station, location is perhaps the biggest vantage point of these apartments. The northern line offers easy access into the city not to mention the 24 hour weekend tube service.

The properties are of a solid build with good sound insulation, flooded with an abundance of natural light, easy to manage, and energy efficient. A perfect solution for busy city people, these luxurious living environments are surrounded by an array of bars, pubs and restaurants. In addition to the convenience of these amenities and to restore balance and serenity from the fast paced city life, the Wandle Park and river are less than a 5 minute walk away.

Britannia Point serves up an exquisite balance between urban and rural living. More than just an apartment number or neighbour, you'll revel in a superb London community, enjoy the many green spaces covering South West London and enjoy fast access into one of the top cities in the world.
