

11b Jeune Street, St Clements, Oxford, OX4 1BN

A perfect property for any STUDENT wishing to have a personal space to themselves to allow for extra privacy and a quiet apartment to work from whilst remaining close to Cowley Road and both Universities.

This building on Jeune Street is only 16 years old so offers a modern alternative in the East Oxford. The interior matches with well-designed furnished kitchen/living area in a bright and vibrant apartment.

The bedroom is complete with double bed and mattress with wardrobe and drawers offering ample storage with an ensuite to complete the property.

There is a large communal garden, with security gate, at the rear of the property which offers plenty of bike storage.
