Complaints

At Turpin Barker Armstrong we always strive to provide a professional and efficient service. However, we recognise that it is in the nature of insolvency proceedings for disputes to arise from time to time. As such, should you have any comments or complaints regarding the administration of a particular case then in the first instance you should contact the IP acting as office holder.

If you consider that the IP has not dealt with your comments or complaint appropriately you should then put details of your concerns in writing to our complaints officer Andrew Bailey at Turpin Barker Armstrong, Allen House, 1 Westmead Road, Sutton, Surrey, SM1 4LA. This will then formally invoke our complaints procedure and we will endeavour to deal with your complaint under the supervision of a partner unconnected with the appointment.

Most disputes can be resolved amicably either through the provision of further information or following negotiations. However, in the event that you have exhausted our complaints procedure and you are not satisfied that your complaint has been resolved or dealt with appropriately, you may complain to the regulatory body that licences the insolvency practitioner concerned. Any such complaints should be addressed to The Insolvency Service, IP Complaints, 3rd Floor, 1 City Walk, Leeds, LS11 9DA, and you can make a submission using an on-line form available at <https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-insolvency-practitioner>; or you can email insolvency.enquiryline@insolvency.gov.uk; or you may phone 0300 678 0015. Information on the call charges that apply is available at <https://www.gov.uk/call-charges> .

Standard terms and conditions

Turpin Barker Armstrong has standard terms and conditions for use with each type of engagement as follows:

Investment business

Pension transfers and pension opt-outs

Insolvency and Business Recovery

Any applicable standard terms are provided to the client at the start of the engagement and they can request a further copy if required. There are some situations where we consider that the Provision of Services may consider that a person is “using” our services without formally engaging us and becoming a client (e.g. creditors in insolvency appointments) and there are no standard terms and conditions for that type of relationship.
