

MOORE ALLEN & INNOCENT

VACANCY Qualified Rural Surveyor

Working across Gloucestershire, Wiltshire, Oxfordshire and surrounding Counties

The role:

Due to expansion within the Agricultural Department we are seeking a qualified RICS and CAAV Rural Surveyor. The successful candidate will have several years demonstrable experience within the sector, being able to work independently within the rural team, advising on a range of professional matters.

The Ideal Candidate:

You will already have gained experience in a wide range of rural consultancy matters such as estate management, rural business advice, landlord and tenant matters, environmental, valuation, planning and utilities, and other diverse areas of work. Opportunity will also be available to get involved in our machinery auctions and marketing events. As well as working on existing instructions you will have an opportunity to get involved in identifying, securing and delivering new business opportunities and developing new work streams in key growth areas as part of a supportive team network.

This is a fantastic opportunity to be part of, and contribute to, the ongoing success of a thriving independent and multi-disciplined firm and will particularly suit someone ambitious who is looking to take the next step in their career with the following attributes:

- RICS demonstrable relevant experience in rural or agricultural matters
- A fellow of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers, desirable, not essential.
- RICS Registered Valuer, desirable but not essential.
- Capable of building and maintaining good relationships with clients and providing recommendations based on technical knowledge and experience
- Able to support the team in winning and delivering new instructions
- A keen networker, confident, ambitious and driven, happy to work in a challenging environment and at times under pressure.
- Have a current driving licence.

The package offered will be competitive and commensurate with experience.

Your application will be dealt with in the strictest confidence by a member of the agriculture recruitment team. For an informal and confidential discussion about the role please contact Stuart Milsom on 01285 648107 or please send a C.V. and covering letter to sue.farrier@mooreallen.co.uk.

About Us

The firm of Moore Allen & Innocent has a long-standing history, dating back to 1845 when Mr. C.F. Moore conducted his first property auction at the Bathurst Arms, North Cerney and over numerous years the firm evolved to take on the current name of Moore Allen & Innocent in 1939. Over the years the priorities of Moore Allen & Innocent have altered in line with the demands of a changing world, expanding to form today's modern, independent and multi-disciplined firm. We now provide the most comprehensive range of agricultural and rural services for farmers and landowners in the area, alongside a thriving residential department active in both sales and lettings and a fine art saleroom.

Closing date for applications: Friday 17th November 2023.
