Why did you choose your current property? What attributes did it offer that were important to you?

Why are you thinking of moving? What motivates you?

Where would you like to be located and why? Could you move somewhere slightly different if it meant getting more for your money?

How will you finance your move? Nb if you will need any form of loan/ mortgage we would strongly recommend investigating this today. We can help - please ask.

Cridland and Co moving checklist - feel free to return this to us, we will contact you to discuss your answers.

What do you want from your next property - this can be character/ number of bedrooms/ views/ local schools etc.

Considering your previous answers, now think about what you need - how do these answers differ?

When would you like to move and why? Consider any prior commitments which may pose issues.

The above is not exhaustive but in our experience it is often an exceptionally good place to start! We hope the exercise proves useful, and would be very glad to discuss your thoughts at any time. We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
