Lillie Road forms the southern boundary together with the Clem Atlee Estate, and there is terraced housing to the north of the park forming Bramber Road and Normand Road.

The kiosk is centrally located within the park, situated on the principal footpath linking the south perimeter with its north. The pavilion is situated 50 yards to the east of the kiosk and overlooks a grassed area formerly used as a bowling green.

Description

The demised premises comprise a bowls pavilion and a kiosk, providing two trading locations within Normand Park. The two properties are standalone, single-storey brick-built buildings with flat roofs.

The council shall be delivering landscaping improvements to rewild the bowling green and improve access over the winter including an outside seating area in front of the pavilion.
