In detail

A four bedroom house available to rent in Herne Hill, perfect for professional sharers.

Offering generous living space, after entering the front door you enter a long hallway, a great space for stashing shoes and coats out of your way.

To the front of the property, there is a double reception room with patio doors and a dining kitchen at the back with direct access outside to the back garden. Leading of the kitchen is a useful downstairs bathroom.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, another bathroom, laundry space and an additional WC. A further staircase leads to the top floor with two further bedrooms.

The property is HMO compliant and beautifully presented, designed with professional sharers in mind. Available immediately and furnished.

Located on Norwood Road, local shops and cafes are a stone's throw away & local bus links are outside your door. A short stroll away as is Herne Hill Station with regular links into London Victoria and Blackfriars (Thameslink)
