Chesterford Gardens, London NW3 7DE

Nestled within a beautifully converted period house, this exquisite two-bedroom apartment occupies the majority of the elevated ground floor. It enjoys an abundance of natural light and a meticulously maintained interior, blending the timeless elegance of its original character with tastefully integrated contemporary features, such as a bespoke drink cabinet and wine storage.

The expansive reception and dining area, spanning an impressive 26 feet in depth, provides a delightful vista of neighbouring gardens, adding to the apartment's charm. Both bedrooms are generously sized, graced by large bay windows, and the property boasts ample storage space.

Ideally located on Chesterford Gardens, this residence offers easy access to the fashionable boutiques, dining establishments, and transportation options that make Hampstead Village so appealing. Notably, the nearby Hampstead Underground Station (Northern Line) ensures convenient connectivity to the rest of London.
