In Detail

A newly refurbished four bedroom double-fronted detached family house positioned on a wide, leafy residential road in Crystal Palace.

This generously proportioned property offers balanced accommodation arranged over two floors and is an ideal long-term rental for a growing family to immediately enjoy. A fresh and inviting blank canvas, the ground floor comprises of three reception spaces including a double reception which extends to 26 ft and boasts stripped wood flooring, a sunny shuttered bay, and double doors to outside. The kitchen has granite surfaces and room to dine, whilst there is also a handy W/C on this level.

Upstairs there is a light and bright landing with a skylight and access to a sizeable and fully insulated loft space, whilst all four bedrooms are well proportioned with brand new platinum grey carpets, the main including an en suite shower room and fitted storage. A fully tiled family bathroom has a heated towel rail and fresh white sanitary ware, also a separate utility cupboard for keeping laundry out of the way. Externally there is a west-facing rear lawned garden with an elevated patio seating area which enjoys semi-rural green views.

The front of the house has off street parking for two / three cars, an EV charge point, and access to a storage shed which runs the length of the property.

Downsview Road, SE19 is well placed for a number of green open spaces, the popular Downsview Primary school and Harris Academy, and amenities of Crown Point. The area is primarily served by Gipsy Hill and Norbury rail stations, also the X68 bus route to Brixton tube (Victoria Line).
