123 Haverstock Hill

Belsize Park, London, NW3 4RT

£8,000,000

Please see the attached floor plans. Unfortunately it's completely discreet so no pictures but its less than a 5 minute walk to Belsize park station and brand newly built. The owner himself is currently living at the property as his own home and is using both floors for himself.

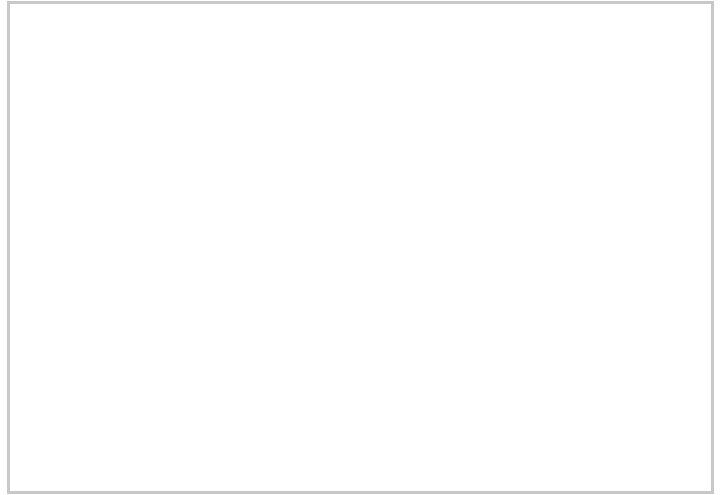

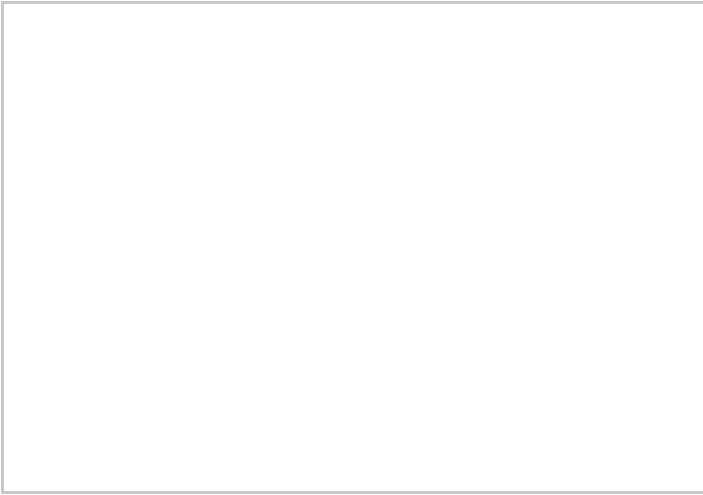

A spectacular apartment with views over the whole of London and a huge terrace on the top floor of the building with plans and the structure to create a swimming pool up there if you wished.

There are different options on the purchase with this depending on budget as it can be sold as one unit, two (maisonette with half of the penultimate floor and whole of the top floor) or three with the top floor and terrace as one unit and two separate apartments on the floor below as per the build drawings.
