THE PROPERTY

Whether you're looking for a substantial business premises under the current commercial use, or have ideas to convert to residential use, there's a huge amount of space and potential on offer. Still with some hints of its period origins including original doors, mouldings, and an impressive barrel-vaulted landing, the property requires remodelling throughout but has ample space to create one or more residential units subject to the necessary consents with the added bonus of outside space at the rear with potential for parking and garden to be created.

ACCOMMODATION

Entrance vestibule and traditional hall with wide staircase to first floor, two potential reception rooms to the front aspect with some period features remaining, and useful store / potential snug or study. Steps down from the rear hall to a large lower ground floor currently subdivided into workshops / stores but offering huge scope to create an open plan kitchen / dining / living space at the rear. Impressive first floor barrel-vaulted landing space with original arched window and potential bedroom area to rear (currently of timber construction) with three further rooms / potential bedrooms off the main landing, dressing room / box room offering scope for en suite facilities and a separate shower room.

OUTSIDE

A small front garden is enclosed by original railings. At the rear vehicular access is off the cul de sac behind, and whilst access is currently partly over the rear of 21a High Street onto the yard, buyers may prefer to look into the removal of a small section of wall to create a more definitive private access onto the rear of number 23. The area of yard currently contains two shipping containers which are included in the sale, although removal of these would allow ample room for both off road parking and a designated area of southerly facing garden.

SITUATION

Recently voted as the top property hotspot by The Times, Chard is a historic market town with excellent road links via the A30 which travels east to Crewkerne and Yeovil and west towards Exeter. The A358 travels north towards Taunton and the M5, or you can head south towards the Jurassic coast (c.30 minutes' drive). There are main-line stations at Axminster, Crewkerne (Waterloo) and Taunton (Paddington). The stunning Jurassic coastline lies just 12 miles south of Chard with its beautiful beaches and pretty seaside towns.

On the edge of Chard you'll find Chard Reservoir Nature Reserve, a beautiful expanse of open water with surrounding woodland ideal for dog-walking, fishing (via permit) and bird-watching. From the reservoir edge you can access the Chard-Ilminster cycle path, part of the Sustrans route 33 which follows a predominantly level pathway between the towns of Chard and Ilminster along the site of the former railway line, completely away from traffic and popular for cyclists, dog walkers and joggers. The town centre, with a large range of independent and high street retailers also boasts a newly finished Leisure Centre with a swimming pool, Softplay area and gym. There is also a golf course within 2 miles and several other sporting activities close by. There are several large supermarkets in the town and B&Q store. Chard also has a good variety of schools, both state schools rated "good" by Ofsted and the historic Chard Independent School.

LEGAL AND INFORMATION PACK

A full legal pack can be purchased online. Please telephone the office below to check availability.

We strongly recommend you instruct a solicitor to inspect the legal pack on your behalf.

Guides are provided as an indication of each seller's minimum expectation. They are not necessarily figures which a property will sell for and may change at any time prior to the auction. Each property will be offered subject to a Reserve (a figure below which the Auctioneer cannot sell the property during the auction). The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The 'Reserve Price' may exceed the 'Guide Price' listed. If so, it is customary for the 'Reserve Price' to exceed the guide price by no more than 10%.

Additional Fees

- The successful purchaser will be required to pay the Auctioneers a Purchaser's Administration Fee of £1,500 (£1,250 plus VAT) payable to Symonds & Sampson. For purchases of £50,000 or less the Administration fee will be £900 (£750 plus VAT). If two or more lots are offered together in the first instance, or lots are purchased under one contract, the administration fee will apply per lot and not per contract. The charge will apply to lots bought prior to and post auction.
- In the event of non-payment or underpayment a deduction will be made from the deposit received. A VAT receipt will be issued in the name of the buyer.
- Disbursements – Please see the legal pack for any disbursements listed that may become payable by the purchaser.

1. They have no authority to make or give any representations or warranties in relation to the property. The particulars do not form part of any offer or contract and must not be relied upon as statements or representations of fact.

It should not be assumed that the properties have all necessary Planning, Building Regulation or other consents, and Symonds & Sampson LLP have not tested any services, equipment or facilities. The vendors reserve the right to sell their properties prior to auction and these details can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. Please check our website regularly at: www.symondsandsampson.co.uk and look out for any additional materials available on the day of the auction, in order to ensure you have all the up to date information.

Plans and Measurements - All room sizes, site measurements and distances are approximate and may have been scaled from architects, Land Registry or Ordnance Survey plans. They are there to assist buyers in identifying the lots offered and not guaranteed to be to scale or to indicate the full extent of the property being offered. Buyers are advised to view the Special Conditions and full legal documentation in respect of the precise interest to be sold.

Each lot will be sold in accordance with the title documentation as the location plans shown in the catalogue are for identification purposes only. Interested applicants should make their own site inspections and investigations with regard to the accuracy of all measurements given in the catalogue.

Tenure - Freehold and vacant possession will be given on completion unless otherwise stated.

The Guide Price is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. It is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase.

It is usual, but not always the case that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued.

A guide price is different to a reserve price (see below). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

The Reserve Price is the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The 'Reserve Price' may exceed the 'Guide Price' listed. If so, it is customary for the 'Reserve Price' to exceed the guide price by no more than 10%.

If two or more lots are offered together in the first instance, or lots are purchased under one contract, the administration fee will apply per lot and not per contract. The charge will apply to lots bought prior to and post auction. In the event of non-payment or underpayment a deduction will be made from the deposit received.
