SITUATION

Middle Mackham is set in a secluded position, overlooking the unspoilt Madford Valley in the Blackdown Hills National Landscape. This historic farmstead is located on the fringes of the pretty hamlet of Madford, near the remains of Dunkeswell Abbey which was founded in 1201. Nearby, the thriving village of Hemyock offers good local facilities including a general store, post office, public house, sports centre and primary school. The property is equidistant between Wellington, with a range of good local amenities including a Waitrose, and the bustling market town of Honiton with a main line railway station. Whilst surrounded by beautiful countryside on the Devon/Somerset borders, there are good road connections with access to the M5 and the A303 close by. The Cathedral city of Exeter is easily accessible with its excellent shopping facilities and international airport, whilst Somerset's County Town of Taunton also provides an extensive range of amenities.

THE PROPERTY

The farm was formerly known as Alexanderhayes and the 17th century farmhouse may have earlier medieval origins (listed Grade II). It is understood that the house was partially rebuilt in the 1940s, it is constructed of local rubble flint with some cob under an asbestos corrugated roof. For many years the house has been divided, with the higher section forming an annexe that has been let out, this could be easily incorporated to create a large family home. The main house now requires complete renovation, but it is considered buyers could live in the annexe whilst renovating. There are many lovely period features including ancient cruck beams, two chamfered mullion windows, flagstones floors, moulded doorways, inglenook fireplaces and a plank and muntin screen. Although a substantial project the farmhouse offers spacious accommodation with great potential for multi-generational living or creating income through letting. Additionally the flexible outbuildings could provide space for home working, leisure or creative endeavours. See floorplan for accommodation and measurements.

LOT A THE FARMHOUSE, ANNEXE AND FARM BUILDINGS

OUTSIDE

The farm is accessed via a No Through Road that is council maintained until its boundary. The lane continues past Middle Mackham serving one further farm. The farmhouse sits within an attractive courtyard of traditional stone/cob farm buildings, these comprise: -

- Attached to the farmhouse – stables with loft over (7.1m x 5.2m) and Linhay (27.4m x 4.6m)
- Cider Barn (5.2m x 3.7m) with attached Former Cowstall (16.2m x 5.0m) opening to the Threshing Barn (17.1m x 6.2m) listed Grade II dating to the late 15th/early 16th century.
- Wagon Shed (8.6m x 4.84m) – this building is listed Grade II independently, the listing says 'built to shelter loaded wagons from rainstorms and is a rare survival of this type of farm building'. It is considered that many of the barns offer potential for conversion/alternative uses (STPP), the Threshing Barn is understood to previously have been granted planning permission for conversion to a dwelling (now lapsed).

Lot A extends to 2.89 acres (1.17 ha).

LOT B

The buyers of Lot A will be given first refusal to purchase Lot B, which comprises a very pretty block of permanent pastureland. The land is divided into three main enclosures, the higher two meadows have been used for haymaking/grazing and have a timber field shelter (8.9m x 4.8m). The lower field is a grazing field with areas of woodland, some having been planted more recently under Countryside Stewardship. The land is generally well fenced for sheep. Part of the land is designated as a Local Wildlife Site (LWS) with the Devon Wildlife Trust. The western boundary forms the Madford River. Lot B extends to 14.81 acres (5.99 ha).

LEGAL AND INFORMATION PACK

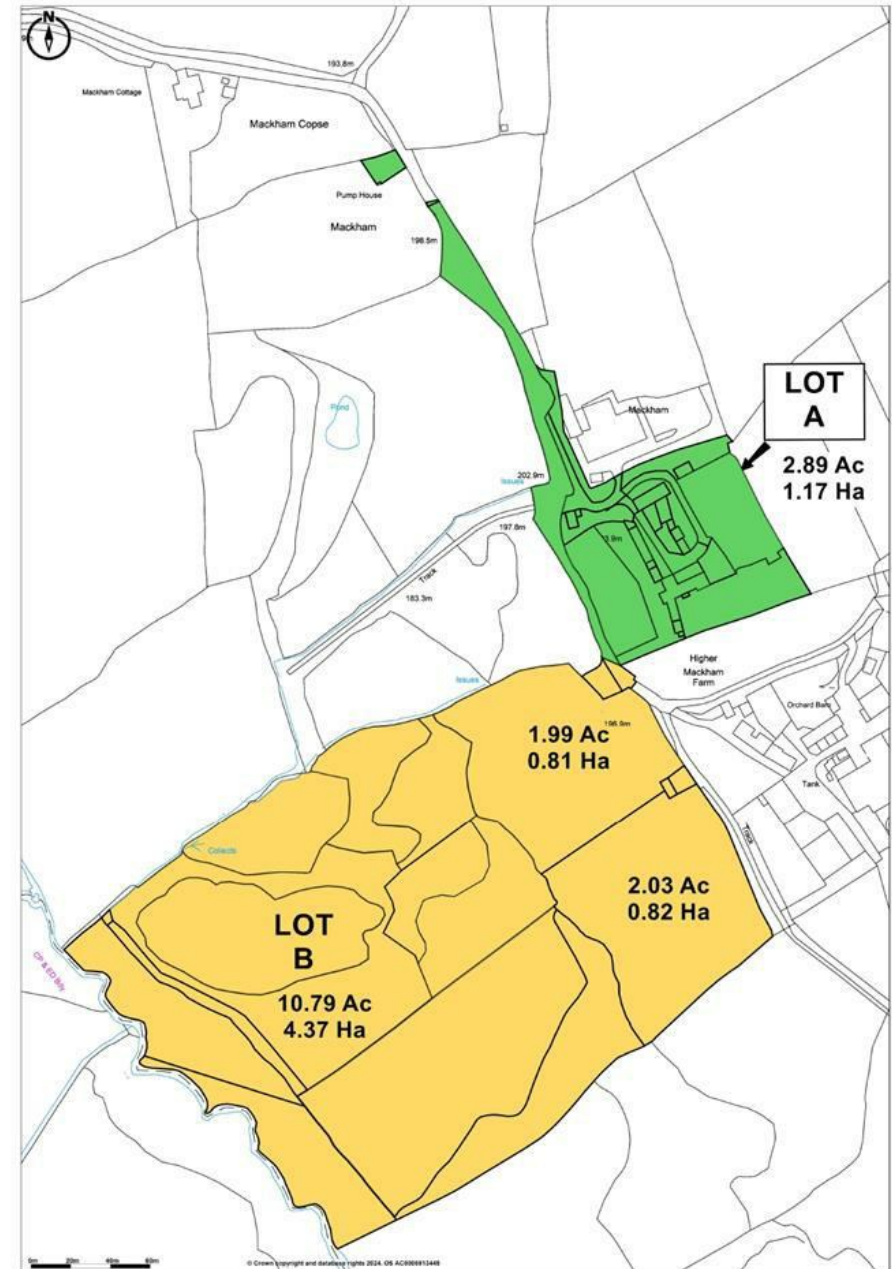

A full legal pack can be purchased online. Please telephone the office below to check availability.

We strongly recommend you instruct a solicitor to inspect the legal pack on your behalf.

Guides are provided as an indication of each seller's minimum expectation. They are not necessarily figures which a property will sell for and may change at any time prior to the auction. Each property will be offered subject to a Reserve (a figure below which the Auctioneer cannot sell the property during the auction). The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The 'Reserve Price' may exceed the 'Guide Price' listed. If so, it is customary for the 'Reserve Price' to exceed the guide price by no more than 10%.

Additional Fees

- The successful purchaser will be required to pay the Auctioneers a Purchaser's Administration Fee of £1,500 (£1,250 plus VAT) payable to Symonds & Sampson. For purchases of £50,000 or less the Administration fee will be £900 (£750 plus VAT). If two or more lots are offered together in the first instance, or lots are purchased under one contract, the administration fee will apply per lot and not per contract. The charge will apply to lots bought prior to and post auction.
- In the event of non-payment or underpayment a deduction will be made from the deposit received. A VAT receipt will be issued in the name of the buyer.
- Disbursements – Please see the legal pack for any disbursements listed that may become payable by the purchaser.

Plans and Measurements - All room sizes, site measurements and distances are approximate and may have been scaled from architects, Land Registry or Ordnance Survey plans. They are there to assist buyers in identifying the lots offered and not guaranteed to be to scale or to indicate the full extent of the property being offered. Buyers are advised to view the Special Conditions and full legal documentation in respect of the precise interest to be sold.

Tenure - Freehold and vacant possession will be given on completion unless otherwise stated.

The Guide Price is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. It is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase.

It is usual, but not always the case that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued.

A guide price is different to a reserve price (see below). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

The Reserve Price is the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The 'Reserve Price' may exceed the 'Guide Price' listed. If so, it is customary for the 'Reserve Price' to exceed the guide price by no more than 10%.

3. All bidders registered via Auction Passport must authorise a £10,000 security hold on a debit card as part of the registration. Those submitting bidding forms will be required to provide card details for security. If you are successful, the £10,000 hold will be deducted from your account and put towards the 10% deposit. 14. The auction will be recorded and the phone lines for telephone bidders are likely to be recorded to avoid any doubts or disputes.

15. By registering to bid you are agreeing to these Terms & Conditions and understand that should your bid be successful the offer will be binding, and you will be legally bound jointly and separately with the intended Buyer (where the Buyer is different) by the applicable Conditions of Sale.
