Situation

Discover the perfect location at Waveney Place, where you can fully embrace the charm of the town and its surroundings. Just a short walk away, you'll find a vibrant shopping area filled with independent retailers offering everything from gourmet chocolate to trendy boutiques. And for everyday needs, a Co-op Food store is conveniently located just half a mile from the development.

Food enthusiasts will be delighted by the array of dining options. Indulge in traditional pub grub at the Wortwell Bell or the Red Lion, or savour Asian cuisine at favourites like the Momiji Japanese restaurant and Taste of the Raj. And for a unique experience, don't miss the Parlour Tea Rooms, where you can enjoy a quirky afternoon tea with delectable cakes.

As you explore the town, you'll be captivated by its architectural gems. The Market Place, adorned with an elegant Italianate clock tower, showcases stunning Georgian houses and charming courtyards. And for a glimpse into local history, visit the Harleston Museum, which despite its small size, offers fascinating insights.

Embracing its motto of 'Time for Everyone,' Harleston has a thriving community spirit with numerous local clubs, organizations and activities. Throughout the year, the town hosts exciting cultural events, including an art trail and a beloved festival.

Nature enthusiasts will be enchanted by the picturesque walks and bike rides near Harleston. Situated on the banks of the tranquil River Waveney in the heart of the stunning Waveney Valley, the area is a haven for photographers, artists and wildlife enthusiasts.

When it comes to travel, Harleston boasts excellent connections, just 20 miles to the North is the bustling city of Norwich, offering a wide range of attractions. And for those venturing further afield, direct rail services from Diss can whisk you to London in just 90 minutes. With easy access to major roadways for seamless travel the A12 and A143 are within easy reach.

Waveney Place – Development features

Embrace the perfect blend of tradition and modernity at Waveney Place. This stunning development in Harleston pays homage to the town's architectural heritage while offering a range of contemporary living options. The development consists of a mix of spacious one and two-bedroom apartments, two three-bedroom cottages, two-bedroom coach houses plus a choice of a one or two-bedroom bungalow. Each property is exquisitely finished and comes fitted with carpets and flooring.

As you approach, you'll be captivated by the timeless charm of the buildings, with their elegant brickwork and pitched roofs. The meticulously maintained front garden only adds to the appeal.

Waveney Place caters to various lifestyles, with apartments, cottages, bungalows and coach houses. Step into the bright and welcoming reception area of the apartment building, where residents and guests are always greeted with warmth.

The heart of the community lies within the communal lounge, designed to foster connection and enjoyment. Whether you're catching up over coffee or attending an evening social, laughter and good times are guaranteed. If you prefer a quieter moment with a book or newspaper, there are plenty of cozy corners available.

Living in an apartment not only grants you access to the lounge, but also opens up the landscaped garden beyond the patio doors. Relax on the comfortable seating, basking in the sun under the eye-catching pergola during warmer months.

A pathway leads to the adjacent gazebo, where you can admire the meticulously curated beds and borders. Each plant and tree has been carefully selected to create a garden that thrives in every season, exclusively for apartment owners.

For those who enjoy the classic game of boules, a dedicated pitch awaits. Plus, you won't have to worry about tending to the garden – our team takes care of all the maintenance, allowing you to fully appreciate the outdoor spaces without lifting a finger.
