Beautifully restored character property offering contemporary finishes yet retains many features including high ceilings, original fireplaces and bay windows. The semi detached Edwardian property is located within a highly sought after established road convenient for local shops, High Street. Quay and Burnham's railway station which offers a direct link at peak times to London Liverpool Street, journey time approx. 1 hour. The well presented and much improved accommodation includes three first floor double bedrooms served by a re fitted family bathroom, whilst the ground floor boasts a generous entrance hallway leading to a cloakroom, living room, dining room and open plan re fitted kitchen/breakfast room/day room. Externally there is a small low maintenance frontage and vastly improved westerly facing rear garden with a paved seating area and summer house at the rear. Due to the size, standard and location of this property we encourage early viewing to avoid any disappointment. Energy Rating: F.

BURNHAM-ON-CROUCH:

Burnham-on-Crouch is a picturesque town on the banks of the River Crouch, a renown yachting and sailing centre hosting the famous 'Burnham Week' at the end of August. The town has a population of a little over 9,500 and is the principal settlement in the Dengie peninsula. Consequently it boasts many amenities that are uncommon in small towns including two primary schools and an academy secondary school, cinema, Burnham yacht harbour/marina, several boatyards, three yacht clubs (including the Royal Corinthian & Royal Burnham), two supermarkets and numerous individual shops, public houses and restaurants. There is a railway station on the Southminster branch line with direct commuter trains into London Liverpool Street (at peak times). The Burnham-on-Crouch Golf Club, founded in 1923, is situated in Creeksea on the outskirts of Burnham and enjoys breathtaking views over the Crouch Valley and River Crouch.
