AVAILABLE MARCH - Laurence Pountney Lane is a small cobbled stone road that is located just off Canon Street EC4. The lane was named after the church of St Laurence which was destroyed in the Great Fire of London in 1666 and Sir John de Poulteney four times Lord Mayor in the 14th Century. Just situated off this historic little street is Number 5 where this unique studio/ 1 Bedroom apartment is located. Packed with quirky features, including its brick fireplace, located in the spacious living area on the lower level. Another room which has seen a great detail of attention is the fully fitted kitchen- finished with sandstone coloured granite worktops, extractor fan, fridge / freezer, washer / dryer & dishwasher. Other key features of this stunning apartment is its tiled shower room. The apartment is no more than five minutes walk to Monument, Bank and Cannon Street tube stations.
