Ormesby Road, Badersfield

Upon entering through the welcoming entrance porch, you are greeted with an open-plan kitchen and dining room designed for functionality. The thoughtfully designed kitchen boasts modern built-in cabinets, providing practicality and ample countertop space for meal preparation. Integrated appliances, generous storage options, and under-counter space for a washing machine ensure it accommodates all culinary essentials with ease. With tiled flooring, it offers space for a dining table, making it an inviting space to enjoy meals.

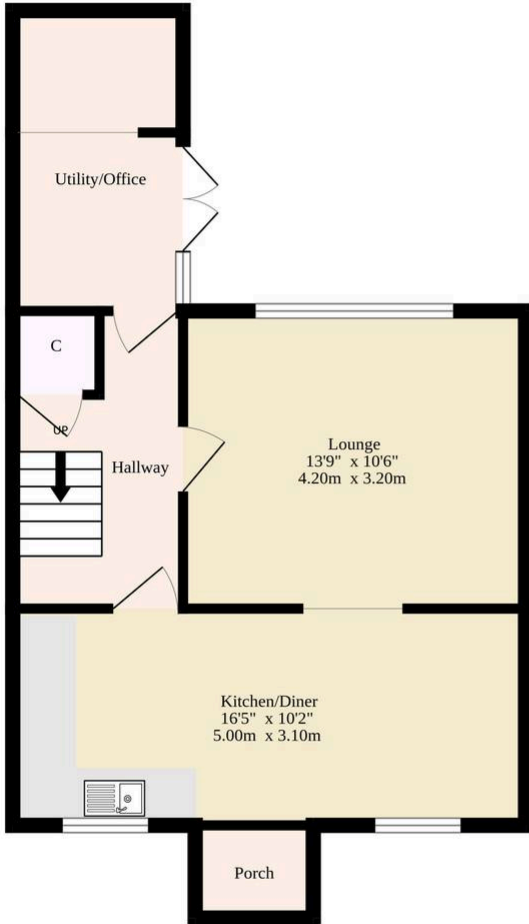

The spacious lounge features a carpeted floor and a rear-facing window that ensures garden views, creating a cosy space. Its generous proportions provide versatility for arranging furniture to suit your lifestyle. Further enhancing the property's allure is the addition of a separate utility or home office room at the rear, offering versatile useability with double doors opening onto the private rear garden plot.

Adding to the appeal, a hallway with stairs leading to the first floor includes a convenient storage cupboard, enhancing the property's functionality. The accommodation offers two well-sized bedrooms with built-in cupboards and plush carpeted floors with one enjoying front-facing views and the other overlooking the rear garden. The first floor also includes a convenient WC and a separate bathroom fitted with a bathtub and wash basin, fully tiled for a neat finish that meets practical needs.

The spacious garden features a decked patio area with space for outdoor furniture. A well-maintained lawn adds to the charm, offering ample room for outdoor activities. Off-road parking facilities include a garage and one allocated parking space, ensuring convenience for residents and guests alike.
