THE PROPERTY

Causeway House is a stunning period residence nestled in the sought-after village of Radipole. Dating from the late 17th century and listed Grade II of historic and architectural interest, this charming stone-built home exudes character with its original sash windows and inviting fireplaces. With spacious accommodation arranged across three storeys, the property provides the perfect blend of historical charm and modern flexibility for family living and entertaining.

ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor features three spacious reception rooms, ideal for formal and informal gatherings. The kitchen/breakfast room offers a welcoming space for family meals. The first floor accommodates three generous bedrooms, a study, a family bathroom, and a shower room, providing comfortable living for family members. The second floor offers two further well-proportioned bedrooms, perfect for guests or extended family.

Outbuildings adjoining the house include a garden room and a workshop and utility room, with access to a first-floor space. This upper area holds substantial potential for re-development, subject to the necessary planning consents, and could be transformed into additional accommodation or a self-contained annexe.

OUTSIDE

The front of the property is enclosed with a charming pathway leading to the main entrance located at the side of the house. Parking is available, along with access to a double garage and a log store. The majority of the grounds lie to the rear of the property, offering approximately 0.642 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens. The grounds are mainly laid to lawn, complemented by mature trees, flowering shrubs, and floral beds. Additionally, there is a well-maintained vegetable garden, perfect for those with a passion for gardening. The setting of Causeway House ensures a tranquil and private retreat in the heart of Radipole village.

SITUATION

Radipole Village is renowned for its historical charm, featuring a picturesque church and period properties. The nearby Radipole Lake Nature Reserve attracts birdwatchers and nature enthusiasts with its scenic trails. Adjacent to Radipole, Southill offers a variety of local amenities, including a general store with a post office, a chemist, a gymnasium, a takeaway, and a pub with a restaurant. Weymouth town centre is just 2 miles away, providing an extensive range of shopping and leisure options, including those near the historic harbour and along the esplanade by the sandy beach. For watersports enthusiasts, the nearby coast offers ample opportunities, with sailing centres at Portland and Castle Cove. The area is also surrounded by stunning countryside, offering access to walks along the Jurassic Coastline.
