Property Description

Situation

Enjoying a central position within this sought after village, the property is found set back of the road upon a large plot and being one of five individually built and designed modern properties. The tranquil village of Palgrave is located just one and a half miles to the south of Diss on the north Suffolk borders and within the beautiful countryside surrounding the Waveney Valley. The village still retains a strong and active local community, most of the properties are centred around the large, unspoilt village green. The historic market town of Diss is with close proximity (15 minutes walk down The Lows) and offers an extensive and diverse range of many day to day amenities and facilities along with the benefit of a mainline railway station with regular/direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.

Description

The property comprises of a four bedroom detached house (being built 4 years ago) and of an individual build and design, built by the highly respected local builder Danny Ward. Of traditional brick and block cavity wall construction under a pitched interlocking tiled roof and heated by a modern gas fired central heating boiler via radiators. As one would expect to find in a property of this age there are high thermal insulation levels and sealed unit upvc double glazed windows and doors. Particular notice is drawn to the upgraded specification of fixtures and fittings and level of finish throughout.

Externally

The property is approached via a hard standing tarmacked driveway leading up to the property and adjacent garage, providing extensive off-road parking for four or so cars (single garage measuring 18' 9" x 7' 1" (5.74m x 2.18m) with electric up and over door to front, power/light connected and storage space within eaves).
